Kwantlen University College, Canada's largest university college, has four campuses in Langley, Richmond & Surrey and serves over 24,000 students annually throughout the BC lower mainland.

Kwantlen is a comprehensive university college with programs in academic and university studies, career and technology programs, trades and vocational training, co-operative education, preparatory and upgrading studies, online education and continuing education. Kwantlen offers all the services of an undergraduate university and a comprehensive community college.

Kwantlen is a native word meaning "tireless runner." It is derived from the First Nations tribe who established their home in the region served by Kwantlen University College.

Our mission is to create quality, life-long learning opportunities for people to achieve personal, social and career success. Learning, quality, relevance, responsiveness, diversity, innovation, accessibility and a student-centred environment provide the philosophical framework within which we pursue our mission.
