

GRADUATION JUNE 25, 1987

Kwantlen is an Indian words meaning 'tireless runner.' The Kwantlen were an Indian tribe who inhabited the area of Surrey, Newton, Richmond and Langley at the time of Governor James Douglas. Today, Chief Alfred Joe Gabriel and his fifty-two member Langley Indian Band live on the 600-acre McMillan Island reserve just across the bridge from the village of Fort Langley.

Designed by Stuart Richardson, faculty member of the Graphics and Visual Design Program, the logo's multidirectional symbols converging on a common point symbolize the coming together of an educational institution toward a common goal that is separated only by the natural terrain of the area. The colours of blue and brown were chosen as being representative of the natural elements surrounding the college — blue representing the water and sky and brown signifying the land surrounded by water. The overall design is in keeping with the Indian name of Kwantlen College.

PROGRAM

May I congratulate the graduates on the achievement which tonight's ceremony marks. You have all worked diligently to attain your qualifications which will, I trust, enable you to proceed with your working career, or go on to further studies.

On behalf of the College, I wish you every success in the future, and would invite you to keep in touch with Kwantlen College.

J.F. Newberry
Acting President

Graduation Procedure

Parents and friends are requested to rise when the graduates' procession enters. The assembly is requested to remain standing until the conclusion of the singing of O Canada.

After the Graduation Address, the graduates only will rise for the General Presentation. After this ceremony they will resume their seats. The graduates will then be called and presented for the awarding of Diplomas, Certificates, and Citations.

It is suggested that the audience refrain from applause until the awards have been made to each class.

Convocation will conclude with the recessional of the platform party and graduates, during which everyone is requested to remain standing.

O Canada

O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command,
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
