TO: Dick Balchen, Registrar

FROM: B.C. Children's Hospital

Dear Mr Balchen:

Thank you very much for your recent contribution of $400 to B.C.'s Children's Hospital through the United Way of the Lower Mainland campaign.

Each year, the staff of Children's cares for children from over 200 communities in B.C. Through the generous support of you and others like you, we are able to provide extensive, highly sophisticated facilities to diagnose, treat and study children with a variety of disorders including cancer, cardiac, kidney, metabolic, neurological and psychiatric problems. Our special care nursery, one of the largest in the country, enables us to give professional attention and care needed by pre-mature and seriously ill newborns.

The children's Variety Research Centre, located adjacent to the hospital, will officially open in September 1985. The centre will be devoted exclusively to the investigation of illnesses that affect the young and will provide laboratory space needed by investigators to seek answers to the causes of children's diseases.

To protect the health of B.C.'s children is our main concern and we are very grateful for the support you have given to assist us in attaining our goals.

Sincerely

Michael Cody,
Development Officer

NEW SOFTWARE NOW AVAILABLE IN THE LIBRARY

1. Citizen Harold (16 mm, 8 min., col.#523)

Citizen Harold gives up trying to promote political change after unsuccessfully organizing his friends and enduring a bureaucratic runaround at City Hall. (Animation)

2. If You Love This Planet (16 mm, 25 min., col. #1137)

This film records a lecture given to American students by out-spoken nuclear critic, Dr. Helen Caldicott, U.S. president for Physicians for Social Responsibility. Her message is clear: disarmament cannot be postponed. Archival film footage of the bombing of Hiroshima and images of its survivors seven months after the attack heighten the urgency of her message: namely, that unless we shake off our indifference and work to prevent nuclear war, we stand a slim chance of surviving the 20th Century.

BUREAUCRACY AND CULTURE

Fourth International Conference on the Comparative, Historical and Critical Analysis of Bureaucracy

September 2 - 6, 1985
Simon Fraser University
Burnaby, British Columbia, Canada

The Simon Fraser University Institute for the Humanities is collaborating with the Gottlieb Duttweiler Institute in Zurich on this fourth international conference on the comparative, historical and critical analysis of bureaucracy. The topic of this conference is BUREAUCRACY AND CULTURE. The previous conferences, partly in cooperation with the New School for Social Research in New York, attempted to analyse the origin and function of bureaucracy. The relationships between bureaucracy and ideology, bureaucracy and law, and bureaucracy and theory were stressed. The fourth conference is concerned with bureaucracy and culture, the domain of human life which may not yet be totally "bureaucratized". The themes of the conference are open to many scientific, philosophical, psychological and critical perspectives. It is the aim of the conference to focus on hidden categories and reflections of bureaucracy in order to describe and examine the directions in society and culture which may now be ignored or misunderstood.

You may wish to participate in this conference, or you may wish to pass on the information to colleagues at other universities who ought to know about it. The conference will feature plenary sessions, panels on specific topics, and reading of submitted papers. Comparative and interdisciplinary contributions from the arts, humanities and social sciences are particularly welcome.

Suggested Themes

- o State, Bureaucracy and Human "Identity"
- o Historical and Contemporary Examples of Culture as an Expression of the Structure of Dominance (Arts, TV, Education, Sports...)
- o Culture and Mass Society
- o The Cultural Roots of Peace and Aggression
- o Symbols and Metaphors of Bureaucracies — Symbols and Metaphors of Culture
